

Institut für Gravitationsforschung

Newsletter December 2006

Dear subscriber,

soon we will complete our experimental measuring series with the paraconical pendulum.

To give an insight view into the behaviour of the paraconical pendulum we disclose our data as plots on our website.

The first and largest part of the plots represent the course of the azimuth angle of the pendulum.

Please follow link.

http://www.gravitation.org/Institute_of_Gravity_Research/Experiments/experiments.html

With best regards
The IGF Team